Find yourself in the arts

All NC State students – regardless of college or major – are welcome to participate in all arts programs and productions, and to take arts courses for credit/non-credit.

What is Arts NC State?

Arts NC State is the collective voice of the six visual and performing arts programs at North Carolina State University: The Crafts Center, Dance Program, Gregg Museum of Art & Design, Department of Music, NC State LIVE and University Theatre.

Each year, Arts NC State provides hundreds of outstanding arts opportunities for both the campus and the greater community. Arts NC State is a part of University College in the Division of Academic & Student Affairs (DASA).

How do I find out about all of the arts opportunities available on campus?

The Arts NC State website (arts.ncsu.edu) is updated year-round with news and events. On the website, you can sign-up to receive email reminders about events.

Connect with all of the arts programs on social media! See the individual program listings on the inside of this brochure for more info.

Does NC State offer arts majors?

Currently, majors are not offered in music, theatre or dance; however, students can obtain a minor in all three areas.

The Department of Music offers a minor in music with two tracks in performance and general studies, and a minor in arts entrepreneurship. The theatre minor includes a combination of courses that address theatre in theoretical and practical contexts, while preserving an emphasis on application. A dance minor is offered through the Department of Health & Exercise Studies (learn more at go.ncsu.edu/danceminor).

Arts-related majors are offered through these colleges:

- Arts Studies: College of Humanities & Social Sciences (ids.chass.ncsu.edu)
- Art + Design: College of Design (design.ncsu.edu)
- Film Studies: College of Humanities & Social Sciences (english.chass.ncsu.edu/film)

Auditions

Dance, music and theatre auditions are open to all students, regardless of academic major or prior experience.

Music Auditions

Marching Band auditions

Marching Band auditions will be conducted by video submission during the summer. Videos are due by June 1 for drumline, by July 9 for brass and woodwinds, and by July 31 for color guard. A live audition option is available for students who do not have access to an instrument at this time. Visit music.arts.ncsu.edu/auditions for details.

Ensemble auditions

Audition formats and deadlines for other ensembles (choirs, jazz bands, orchestras, concert bands and affiliated student organizations) vary, and will take place either in-person or virtually during the first week of classes. Visit music.arts.ncsu.edu/auditions for specific requirements and appointment times for each ensemble.

Dance Auditions

The Dance Program runs two student dance companies, the State Dance Company and the Panoramic Dance Project (see inside panel). This year the Dance Program will hold virtual auditions with face-to-face callbacks. Audition information is at dance.arts.ncsu.edu/auditions. Dancers can submit a video of themselves performing choreographed work or improvisation. Video submission deadline is August 20. Callbacks will be held in-person on Monday, August 23 (Panoramic Dance Project) and Tuesday, August 24 (State Dance Company), both at 6 p.m.

Theatre Auditions

University Theatre will hold auditions for its fall production during the week of August 30. An audition orientation and interest meeting will occur the same week. Rehearsals will begin September 7. Check go.ncsu.edu/audition for additional information.

University Theatre auditions are open to all currently enrolled NC State students. You don't have to be a theatre minor – or even be taking a theatre class – to audition for a University Theatre production.
